

Patron Guide : The Library of Congress' Aspiring Leaders Internship Program

Summer 2024 Session:

The National Library Service for the Blind and Print Disabled (NLS), supported by the National Library for the Blind Endowment, offers a paid internship that offers individuals who are legally blind the opportunity to gain work experience and explore career options working in the areas of collections building, program delivery, and business oversight and management. Application details can be found at www.loc.gov/nls/about/internship-program. The deadline for the summer 2024 session is March 1. All interns will work remotely.

Currently enrolled undergraduate and graduate students and those who have graduated within the past five years from an accredited two-year or four-year college or university are eligible to apply. In addition, applicants:

- Must be US citizens
- Must be legally blind
- Must be able to work remotely

A complete application package includes a cover letter expressing interest, a resume, a recent official or unofficial transcript, and an application form that is completed online.

Applicants interested in the summer 2024 session must submit completed applications by March 1, 2024.
